

Appendix A. Survey Materials

The full set of surveyed incidents, including original descriptions, machine-generated summaries, VADER severity scores, and Kea prototype outputs evaluated under the Five-C framework.

Incident #	Incident description	Summary 1 (Kea prototype)	Summary 2 (ChatGPT)	Severity score (VADER)
1	On 8 July, Dubai police announced the arrest of four gangs planning to steal and smuggle 46 luxury cars out of the country in shipping containers. Police forces from across the country, including from Dubai, Sharjah and Ajman formed a joint task force, which nabbed the gang members. They seized the thieves at a sea port as the cars were about to be smuggled out on a cargo ship. While 17 vehicles were found at the port, 13 were located at a warehouse in the area, 12 vehicles were seized in various emirates, and four cars were being used by the thieves to travel in the country. The vehicles included Bentley, Mercedes, Lexus and Rolls Royce cars, among others.	Police in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) have foiled a plot to smuggle 46 luxury cars out of the country in shipping containers.	Four gangs foiled smuggling 46 luxury cars from Dubai port; joint task force arrested perpetrators.	Negative: 0.13, Neutral: 0.87, Positive: 0. VADER compound score: -0.95.
2	On 18 April, authorities announced they had arrested nine people for the illegal possession of firearms in Nigerian waters. The nine suspects, thought to be part of a maritime security detail, were arrested during a joint operation called Junction Rain, a combined maritime law enforcement operation involving the U.S. Coast Guard and Navy in support of African Maritime Law Enforcement Partnership. The Nigerian Navy claims the vessel was in Nigerian waters, however, the maritime security company maintains the vessel was in international waters at the time and that all weapons were licensed. West African media reports that the suspects are comprised of three Greek nationals, an American and five Nigerians. A Nigerian Navy official told local media that the suspects boat was boarded after the captain apparently lied about how many people were onboard. Upon boarding the vessel, the boarding team discovered that there were more people onboard and a subsequent search of the vessel turned up weapons, including four semi-automatic rifles, as well as 7 ammunition and other military-style gear.	The US Coast Guard and Nigerian Navy have arrested a group of people suspected of illegal possession of firearms in Nigerian waters.	Nine arrested for illegal possession of firearms in Nigerian waters during maritime operation; jurisdictional dispute between authorities and security company.	Negative: 0.13, Neutral: 0.82, Positive: 0.05. VADER compound score: -0.94.
3	On 15 September, a single-handed yacht on passage from Curacao to Brazil was boarded by Spanish-speaking pirates about 13 NM north of the Paria Peninsula, near position 10:58N 062:38W. Initially two open	Pirates boarded a yacht off the coast of Trinidad and Tobago on 15 September and ransacked the vessel before fleeing.	Yacht boarded by Spanish-speaking pirates near Paria Peninsula; captain beaten, yacht ransacked, safely	Negative: 0.09, Neutral: 0.9, Positive: 0.01.

Incident #	Incident description	Summary 1 (Kea prototype)	Summary 2 (ChatGPT)	Severity score (VADER)
	boats with multiple large, new outboards and twenty men took control of the yacht. The pirates were all armed with automatic weapons and handguns. They beat the captain and forced his yacht close to shore in a remote and sparsely populated area. There was a well-established house/camp and other armed men visible ashore. Two additional boats and a total of 40 men then spent four hours threatening the captain with their weapons and ransacking the yacht while he was forced to circle close to shore. Eventually the pirates had taken all they wanted and the yacht proceeded on its voyage and made safe harbor in Chaguaramas, Trinidad. The captain was visited by the Trinidad and Tobago Coast Guard which took a full report.		reached Trinidad with Coast Guard report.	VADER compound score: -0.91.
4	On 8 April, at 2253 local time, the Malta-flagged general cargo ship APACHE was fired upon by Russian Navy and Coast Guard vessels while underway, after deviating from a convoy transiting from Taganrog Bay, eastern Sea of Azov, to the Kerch Strait. According to press reports, the vessel was in a convoy when she deviated her course towards Mariupol and was ordered by the Russian Navy to return to the convoy. After not complying, the Russian Navy and Coast Guard fired upon the vessel, which was struck on her stern. The master of the vessel then contacted the Russian Navy and Coast Guard to cease firing and agreed to rejoin the convoy. According to the Russian military, there were no casualties nor injuries to the crew members, and the vessel was escorted to the port of Yeysk, on the Sea of Azov, for investigation.	A Malta flagged general cargo ship was fired upon by Russian Navy and Coast Guard vessels while underway in the Sea of Azov.	Malta flagged cargo ship APACHE fired upon by Russian Navy for deviating from convoy; no casualties, escorted to port for investigation.	Negative: 0.09, Neutral: 0.9, Positive: 0.01. VADER compound score: -0.90.
5	On 27 October at 0430 local time, five perpetrators armed with knives boarded the underway Marshall Islands-flagged bulk carrier MERCHIA in the Strait of Malacca, near position 01:24N 103:03E. The master was stabbed in the chest after discovering the perpetrators. Crew members sounded the alarm and attended to the injured master. A search of the ship following the incident found no perpetrators onboard and nothing was reported as stolen. The Singapore Police Coast Guard boarded the ship upon its arrival in Singapore. The injured master was sent to a hospital in Singapore for treatment and is in stable condition.	A Marshall Islands flagged bulk carrier has been boarded and its master stabbed in the chest in the Strait of Malacca, according to the Singapore Police Coast Guard.	Armed attackers board Marshall Islands flagged bulk carrier MERCHIA in Strait of Malacca; master stabbed, alarm raised, no theft, Singapore Police Coast Guard investigates.	Negative: 0.16, Neutral: 0.80, Positive: 0.04. VADER compound score: -0.92.

Incident #	Incident description	Summary 1 (Kea prototype)	Summary 2 (ChatGPT)	Severity score (VADER)
6	On 21 July, a disgruntled security guard involved in a pay dispute with his employer created a security incident, threatening the Marshall Islands-flagged bulk carrier JAEGER and its crew. After a nearly three-day standoff, the security incident was successfully resolved when the guard surrendered his weapon. During the incident, the guard fired his weapon, but did not harm any crew members. The security guard was one of three guards brought onboard to provide security during a transit in the Indian Ocean sailing towards the Red Sea. The other two guards supplied were not involved in the incident.	A security incident on board a Marshall Islands flagged bulk carrier in the Indian Ocean was resolved when a disgruntled security guard surrendered his weapon.	Disgruntled security guard in pay dispute threatens Marshall Islands flagged bulk carrier JAEGER; standoff ends peacefully after three days, no injuries reported.	Negative: 0.1, Neutral: 0.73, Positive: 0.17. VADER compound score: +0.85.
7	On 14 January, an in-the-water and not locked dinghy went missing from a sailing yacht anchored in San Blas Wasaladup. There were 2 separate lines securing the dinghy to the yacht, both were untied at the dinghy end but still secure to the yacht. The owners conducted an extensive search that day and did not locate the dinghy. A $100 reward was offered. Three days later the dinghy was found and the promised reward paid.	A dinghy that went missing from a sailing yacht in the Dominican Republic was found three days later after a reward was offered.	Dinghy stolen from anchored sailing yacht in San Blas Wasaladup; extensive search, $100 reward offered and paid upon recovery.	Negative: 0.02, Neutral: 0.78, Positive: 0.2. VADER compound score: +0.95.
8	On 17 July, at 00:40 local time, five robbers armed with knives boarded the Liberian-flagged bulk carrier ADVENTURER underway in the eastbound lane of the Singapore Strait Traffic Separation Scheme (TSS) near position 01:16N 104:15E. The robbers were spotted in the engine room before making their escape. Nothing was reported stolen, and all crew were reported safe.	A vessel was boarded by armed robbers in the Singapore Strait on 17 July, but the crew were able to escape.	Armed robbers board Liberian flagged bulk carrier ADVENTURER in Singapore Strait; spotted in engine room, no theft, crew safe.	Negative: 0, Neutral: 0.84, Positive: 0.16. VADER compound score: +0.85.
9	On 24 May, the coast guard rescued 290 migrants in two operations near the capital Tripoli. A coast guard vessel rescued 87 migrants from an inflatable boat off Qarabuli, a town 50 km east of Tripoli. Another group of 203 migrants were rescued from two inflatable boats off Zlitin, a town 160 km east of the capital.	The Libyan coast guard rescued more than 300 migrants off the coast of Libya on 24 and 25 May, the coast guard said.	Coast guard rescues 290 migrants in two operations near Tripoli; 87 near Qarabuli, 203 near Zlitin.	Negative: 0, Neutral: 0.87, Positive: 0.13. VADER compound score: +0.81.
10	On 25 November, authorities in Manila announced the rescue of a UK citizen and his Filipino wife after they were kidnapped by Abu Sayyaf group fighters on 4 October. They are safe and unharmed.	The UK Foreign Office has confirmed that a UK citizen and his Filipino wife have been rescued from an Islamist militant group in the Philippines.	Abu Sayyaf is designated as a terrorist organization by various countries, including the United States and the Philippines.	Negative: 0.03, Neutral: 0.81, Positive: 0.16. VADER compound score: +0.72.